France, Germany and Britain: Partners in a Changing World

Mairi Maclean (Editor), Jean-Marc Trouille (Editor)

Abstract

This book explores the relationships, and the potential for closer cooperation, which exist between France, Germany and Britain as they enter the new millennium. It focuses on a wide range of domains in which the three partner countries interact - including financial and monetary integration, economic and industrial cooperation, politics, security and defence, business and corporate governance, and education.

Cite this